

Kiwanis Camp Wa-Ri-Ki Photo Release

During camp activities, photos and/or audio/videotaped images or interviews are sometimes taken by Camp staff, photographers, the media, or other organizations, with the approval of Camp Wa-Ri-Ki. They may be used (*) in publicity for the camp, such as newspaper and magazine coverage, or they may be featured in our camp brochure or on our camp website.

Please complete the form below by initialing one of the lines, then sign and date it to indicate whether or not Camp Wa-Ri-Ki has permission to include photos taken of camp activities of you and/or your child and whether those photos may be used in camp publicity.

Minor Campers' names will never be included with any pictures.

All photos and/or audio/videotaped images or interviews taken/gathered by Camp Wa-Ri-Ki belong to the Camp, for the purpose of promoting the camp, and these images may appear on our website, in promotional videos, or print material.

Camp Wa-Ri-Ki assumes the privilege of using these images as a condition of using the camp facilities.

All photos including those on the Gallery on campwariki.com are copyrighted. Permission must be granted from Camp Wa-Ri-Ki, for any use or duplication of these photos.

_____ Yes, individuals may be photographed during camp activities, and you have my permission to use any of those photographs in publicity, Camp Wa-Ri-Ki website, in the camp brochure, other advertising, and/or news articles.

_____ No, individuals may not be photographed during camp activities. In the event you choose not to give this permission, an identifying photograph of you and/or your child must be provided.

Group Name (if applicable): _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Printed Name: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

* This is not a guarantee that your photo will be publicized. Not all individuals/children are photographed, and of those who are photographed, not all are necessarily featured in print or online.